

INFORMATION ON PROSPECTIVE PARLIAMENTARY CANDIDATES FOR THE GENERAL ELECTION 2009/10

How much longer do we have to wait for someone to move beyond boring biographical blurb and give us a useful insight into the political outlook of candidates?

The wait is over...

“Add this unique series of books to your political intelligence mix and get the edge needed to engage candidates successfully. If you are aiming to stake a claim on the future political landscape, stack a copy of each volume on your desk for easy reference.”

CONSTITUENCIES IN ENGLAND - VOLUME ONE

Published by POLinfluence - trading name of Tony Samphier Ltd

£21.95 plus p&p

With a big turnover of MPs on the cards, probably the biggest for decades, high quality intelligence about the political outlook of parliamentary candidates is at a premium.

This new reference guide - the first volume in a unique series covering constituencies across the UK - features full page, in-depth interviews with more than 50 candidates with a “realistic chance” in “safe seats” and key battlegrounds.

Where do these aspiring national politicians stand on the issues they may be voting on if elected? Legalise “assisted dying”? Votes at 16? Fixed-term parliaments? Join the Euro? New nuclear power stations? Minimum alcohol prices? Scrap primary school testing?
